

Texas A&M University parking permits are now valid in the CIR parking lot:

- You are required to register your license plate with your TAMU permit, but there is no additional cost.
- Log into your account on Transportation Services' website and ensure your license plate has been added to your TAMU permit.
- Note that TAMU night permits are only valid 5:00pm - 6:00am.

10 GUESTS OR LESS:

The CIR will pay for up to 10 guests for small meetings at a cost of $10/day/guest.

- CIR staff will register your guests upon arrival.
- Guests must provide name, license plate number and reason for visit (for example: John Smith, ABC-1234, Civil Engineering faculty meeting).
- Permits are tag-less and are monitored using license plate recognition.

11-29 GUESTS:

For meetings of more than 10 guests and less than 30, CIR will bill the host entity for the total cost of parking at a cost of $10/day/guest.

- CIR staff will register your guests upon arrival.
- Guests must provide name, license plate number and reason for visit (for example: John Smith, ABC-1234, Civil Engineering faculty meeting).
- Permits are tag-less and are monitored using license plate recognition.

30+ GUESTS:

For events with 30 guests or more, the host entity will need to make arrangements with Transportation Services, (979) 862-7943, to either (1) purchase placards or (2) purchase the lot.

- The host entity will provide staff to distribute placards to guests upon arrival and direct guests to display them on their dash.
- No placards or further parking registration is required when the lot has been purchased.
